

Phoenix Photographic Group

Newsletter from Meeting of 1st October 2018

Introduction: -

Joe opened the meeting by welcoming 20 members present. He outlined the afternoon activities.

News Items: -

News was quite short in content. Joe advised we had been looking to improve the size of the images which we projected. To this end we have bought a 5 metre HDMI lead so as to move the projector further to increase image size on screen.

As the majority of projected pictures are “landscape” then the width of the current screen is the limiting dimension. We will look into the provision new screens and report back in the future.

A new “topic” was chosen City Life, with Militaria being deleted, as the least used current topic.

Bob Bell addressed the meeting talking about flash guns he had acquired. They dumb variety, but would work with modern digital cameras and at 4 pounds each.

We learned that Roy has come back from the Cannock Arts Council AGM with another £200 grant. He also has another opportunity for PPG members to ‘photo shoot’ at a rehearsal:

I don't know if you have heard anything about the Arts Council production of “The Last Day”

Dress rehearsals 3rd Nov Cannock Leisure Centre from 9.a.m (giving out costumes and weapons)
10th Nov Stafford University Academy 10.00 a.m
11th Nov Prince of Wales Theatre 10.00.a.m.
17th Nov the Rose Theatre 10.00 a.m

I think any members could go and take pics if they wanted. I would need to check that if anyone wanted to go

Roy

Activities: -

We then moved onto Members Pics. It was a busy afternoon with over 175 images to view. As we moved through the categories several images were selected for enhancement during the session next Monday. Concluding at 3.40 when the meeting closed.

Next Meeting: -

Monday 8th October 1.45pm at Etching Hill Village Hall. When we will be enhancing images chosen by the group during this meeting.
