Poet: H. A. Laveley

Into its lap the treasures of the year
Are gladly thrown: the royal golden-rod, Fresh from the kind and gracious hand of God, Puts on a brighter garb, and far and near The wonders of the autumn hues appear;
The balmy air with ecstasy is rife;
All nature grows in plentitude of life,

And breathes deep with the bounties of good cheer.
The morning clouds are full of beauty, too,
And dash their richest crimson o'er the scene,
While in the range of sunset's purple view
There glows the glory of its changing sheen - The tints of earth and sky forever new;
The grandeur which forever rolls between!

From The Chair

Nothing much to report, activity numbers are steadily increasing. The biscuits in the kitchen are steadily decreasing!

The Wednesday morning walkers could do with a few more walker's. Jeff could do with a few more takers for the Wednesday afternoon social.

Badminton at the Community Church could do with some more players on a Wednesday afternoon. Where is everyone one on a Wednesday? Are there free biscuits somewhere!!

We've got a committee meeting in November hopefully there will be some more interesting news then.

Stay safe
Elaine
